New Stock Lindsley Institute. Washington Hall. Wall Paper. For Rent—Cottage House. Special Sale—Works of Art. THANKS.—Ed. Young, the veteran liv-

ary-man, has our thanks for last evening's Pittsburgh papers. DETAINED .- The St. Louis Express, westward bound, was six or seven hours late, yesterday. The detention was beyond Cumberland, but we could not learn the cause of it. Moderating.-The temperature, yesterday, was more moderate than that of the two or three preceding days. Still, the air was damp and chilly, and a much higher temperature would be gladly welcomed. We shall have Spring weather yet, although its coming may be delayed FURTHER PARTICULARS .- The advertisement of Prof. Macallister appears in another column of this morning's paper. We call the attention of our readers to it. No such entertainment has been given in this city for years, and none of its character was ever presented our citizens, either in variety, extent, or completeness. The attractive posters on the bulletin boards will give one a pretty good idea of ome of the wonderful feats of Prof. M.

CLOSED -The river is reported to be closed at Kate's Rock. Ice in large quan-tity was moving sluggishly in the chan-ever brought to this city, and embraces nel opposite the city, yesterday,—a good indication that a gorge had formed at some point below not far distant.

We were told by an observer of such matters that the river closed here on the 5th of March last year, and it would have occurred on the corresponding day of the present year, had there not been a "let up" in the grip of old Jack Frost, Tuesday night.

POLICE COURT.-There was a marked lecline in the business before the police court, yesterday morning, as compared with the amount transacted on either of the preceding mornings of the present week. It may be that the bright, new uniforms of the deputies had something to do with the heavy dockets of Monday and Tuesday. They are certainly very attractive, and may have exerted a powerful influence in drawing offenders into the meshes of Chief Davis' net. The follow- No. 71 Main street, Centre Wheeling. ing cases were disposed of: Thomas Hopkins, disorderly conduct, ten dollar and costs, or 30 days; Steele Miller, drunk, five dollars and costs, or 20 days; James Chapman, tumult and disorder, twenty dollars and costs, or 30 days. Commitments had to be made out for these parties, as they had no money with which to liqui-

Judge Rogers made an announcement which it would be well for those who have heretofore been arraigned before him to remember. Hereafter he will double the penalty on a party brought up for the sec-ond time, and will continue in the same ratio until the maximum fixed in the ordi-nance is reached. So look out, offenders, or it will soon cost you twenty dollars and costs to appear on the streets in a state of COUNTY COURT .- Judge Cochran, although suffering severely from a cold, is pushing along with the business coming before him. The following is a synopsis' of what was done at yesterday's sessions: Louis Haller who had previously taken out his "first papers," was admitted to all the rights and privileges of a fully developed citizen of the United States.

Letters of administration on the estate of the late Judge M. C. Good, were granted to G. B. Caldwell, Esq.—bond $3,000. In the case of the State vs. Elijah Humble, a plea in abatement was filed in open

On motion of the Prosecuting Attorney, E. G. Cracraft, Esq , it was ordered that capias be assued to the Sheriff of this county, to bring before the court on 6th of March, at 10 o'clock, Simon Kramer and Elijah Humble to answer indictments found against them at this term; also, that a summons be issued to Frank Shanley to answer an indictment or misdemeanor (4 counts.)

We take the following from yesterday's Reporter which was put to press before the announcement of Col. H.'s death. We infer from it that the Insatiate Archer Wiggans, did not permit him to reach the bosom of his family before striking him down.

The following is the extract.

"We are pained to announce that our friend and fellow-citizen, Hon. Wm. Hopkins, is lying very ill at the Union Depot Hotel in Pittsburgh. On Wedhesday evening of last week, having obtained a leave of absence from the Constitutional Convention, he started trom. Philadelphia (or ention, he started from Philadelphia for home for the purpose of attending to some private business. He took a sleeping car, and while on his way he woke up with a severe chill. When he arrived at Pittssevere chill. When he arrived at Pitts-burgh he was so weak and prostrated that he was unable to get out of the car with-out assistance. He was taken to the Union Depot Hotel, and [medical assist-ance was called. His physicians pro-nounced his disease pneumonia. At the present writing the doctors in attendance, Le Moyne, King and Wishart, think they have the disease in check, and that the Colonel will soon begin to improve. We sincerely hope that his sickness will be of Colonel will soon begin to improve. We sincerely hope that his sickness will be of short duration, and that it will not be long until he is able to return to his family. Before going to press we were glad to learn that Mr. Hopkins was improving and his friends hope that he will be in condition to be removed to his home

THE OLD FLAG.-We happened in at Washington Hall, last evening, during the presentation of this superior drama, and were well pleased with the manner in which each character was sustained. Had it not been for the great ability with which Mr. Lewis presented the character of Col. Sharpe, as well as that of Chas. Lewis, the play might have been a fallure, owing to the absence of the party taking the part of Col. Sharpe, by busi ness of importance. Each character will have its proper representative during the remainder of the week, and no drawback need be anticipated. Where all the actors do so well, it is hardly possible to discriminate, but Mr. and Mrs. Bailey sustain their respective parts in a manner that would do credit to any of the high spirited southern folks of past days. One very attractive leature of the performance is the rendering of some fine Irish songs by Mr. E. L. Galligan. This of itself is worth hearing. In fact, the play is certainly meritorious, and should receive a very full share of the public patronage.

FINE OIL PAINTINGS .- We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisenent of our young friend, George A. Wickham, the well-known auctioneer, in another column of the Intelligences. A rare opportunity is offered our citizens to purchase fine oil paintings and steel en gravings, which they will gladly avail themselves of, we believe. The collection ome splendid works of art. Ladies visiting the gallery (in Beck's block.) will find comfortable seats and courteous attendants who will take pleasure in giving desired information. See advertisemen
